Except as provided herein, the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. (12/23/2019)

Except as otherwise provided in such resolution or in these bylaws, the chair of each such committee shall be appointed by the chair of the corporation and the members of such committee shall be appointed by the chair of the committee. Any member of any committee may be removed by the person or persons authorized to appoint such member whenever in their judgment the best interests of the corporation shall be served by such removal. The Board of Directors may discontinue any such committee at its pleasure. It shall be the function and purpose of each such committee to advise the Board of Directors on matters relating to the business and affairs of the corporation; and each such committee shall have such powers and perform such specific duties or functions, not inconsistent with the articles of incorporation of the corporation or these bylaws, as may be prescribed for it by the Board of Directors. Appointments to and the filling of vacancies on any such other committees shall be made by the chair of the committee, unless the Board of Directors otherwise provides. Any action by each such committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors at its meeting next succeeding such action and shall be subject to control, revision, and alteration by the Board of Directors, provided that no rights of third persons shall be prejudicially affected thereby. (12/23/2019)

Article 7: Gifts to the Corporation

Gifts shall vest in the corporation upon receipt and acceptance by it (whether signified by an employee, or agent of the corporation). (12/23/2019)

Section 2 - Designation of Trustee, Custodian, or Agent. The corporation may enter into agreements with trustees, custodians, or agents having custody of funds of the corporation, specifying additional terms of such custody. (12/23/2019)

Section 3 - Donors' Acceptance of Governing Instruments of the Corporation. By making a gift to the corporation, each donor accepts and agrees to all the terms of the articles of incorporation of the corporation and these bylaws, and provides that the fund or funds so created shall be subject to the provisions relating to presumption of donors' intent, to modification of restrictions or conditions, to replacement or removal of participating trustees, custodians, or agents, to amendments and termination, to spending policies and rates from time to time in effect, and to all other terms of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation, and any trust, custodian or agency agreement between the corporation and the trustees, custodians, or agents having custody of the funds of the corporation each as from time to time amended. (12/23/2019)

Section 4 - Split-Interest Trusts or Funds. If a gift is made to a trustee in trust to make income or other payments to the corporation, followed by payments to any individuals or for other non-charitable purposes, it shall not be treated as a component fund of the corporation; and only the payments to the corporation shall be regarded as funds of the corporation, subject to the articles of incorporation and these bylaws, and then only when the corporation becomes entitled to their use. If a gift is made to a trustee in trust to make income or other payments for a period of a life or lives in being or a term of years, to any individuals or for other non-charitable purposes, followed by payments to or for the use of the corporation, it shall not be treated as a component fund of the corporation until all such non-charitable interests expire, at which time the fund shall become a component fund of the corporation. The Board of Directors may take such actions as it from time to time deems necessary or desirable to further the corporation's rights or interests in any split-interest funds, whether or not component funds of the corporation, and to protect its right to receive payments from such funds. (12/23/2019)

Section 5 - Donors' Directions. Any donor may, with respect to a gift made by such donor to the corporation and within such limits of policy as the corporation from time to time may declare in writing, give directions in the instrument of gift or transfer as to (a) field of charitable purposes or particular charitable organizations or purposes to be supported, (b) manner of distribution, including amounts, times, and conditions of payments and whether from principal and/or income, and (c) a name as a memorial or otherwise for a fund given, or addition to a fund previously held, or anonymity for the gift. (12/23/2019)

Section 6 - Commingling of Funds. No gift shall be required separately to be invested or held, unless it is necessary in order to follow any other direction by the donor as to purpose, or in order to prevent tax disqualification, or it is required by law. In the absence of contrary instructions from the donor, directions for naming a fund as a memorial or otherwise may be satisfied either by keeping under such name accounts reflecting appropriately the interest of such fund in each common investment or in the trust as a whole or by commingling the funds with other funds, but referring in the corporation's documentation to the name designated by the donor of the gift at the time it was received by the corporation. (12/23/2019)

Section 7 - Presumption of Charitable Intent. Each fund of the corporation shall be presumed to be intended

(a) to be used only for charitable purposes,

(b) to be productive of a reasonable rate of investment return over a reasonable period of time which (except during the period referred to in Section 4 of this Article Seven) is to be distributed in accordance with such policies as the Board of Directors may prescribe from time to time or, if accumulated, is to be accumulated only in a reasonable amount and for a reasonable period for a charitable purpose or purposes, and

(c) to be used only for such of those purposes and in such manner as not to disqualify the gift from deduction as a charitable contribution, gift, or bequest in computing any federal income, gift, or estate tax of the donor or his or her estate and not to disqualify the corporation from exemption from federal income tax as a qualified charitable organization described in sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, and shall not be otherwise applied.

If a direction by the donor, however expressed, would, if followed, result in use contrary to the intent so presumed, or if the Board of Directors is advised by counsel that there is substantial risk of such result, the directions shall not be followed, but shall be varied by the Board of Directors so far as necessary to avoid such result. However, if the donor has clearly stated that compliance with the direction is a condition of the gift, then the gift shall not be accepted unless an appropriate judicial or administrative body first determines that the condition and direction need not be followed. Reasonable charges and expenses of counsel for such advice and proceedings shall be proper expenses. For purposes of these bylaws, "charitable purposes" include charitable, educational, religious, scientific, literary, cultural, civic, public and other purposes contributions for which are deductible under section 170(c)(1) or (2), section 2055(a)(1) or (2), or section 2522(a)(1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code; and "qualified charitable organization" means an organization which is described in section 170(c)(1) or (2), section 2055(a)(1) or (2), or section 2522(a)(1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code. (12/23/2019)

Section 8 - Power of Modification. Notwithstanding any provision in these bylaws or in any instrument of transfer creating or adding to a fund of this corporation, and in accordance with the articles of incorporation of this corporation, the Board of Directors shall have the power to modify any restriction or condition on the distribution of funds for any specified charitable purposes or to specific organizations, if in the sole judgment of the Board of Directors (without the necessity of the approval of any participating trustee, custodian, or agent), such restriction or condition becomes, in effect, unnecessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with the charitable needs of the world. The Board of Directors shall exercise this power by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors then in office. (12/23/2019)

Section 9 - Other Charitable Organizations. In furtherance of the corporation's charitable purposes and functions, the Board of Directors shall have the authority to cause to be formed, or to enter into relationships with, other organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including organizations operated for the benefit of and to carry out the purposes of the corporation. In such event, the corporation shall exercise such supervision and control over any such organization operated for the benefit of and to carry out the purposes of the corporation as may be necessary to qualify it as an organization described in section 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and the regulations thereunder. (12/23/2019)

Section 2 - Vote Required for Determinations. All such determinations shall be made by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present at a meeting duly called at which a quorum is present, or by the committee of directors charged with the responsibility for such determinations, unless otherwise expressly provided in these bylaws or by direction of the donor as a condition of the gift (which is subject, nevertheless, to the power to modify as provided in Article Seven). (12/23/2019)

Section 3 - Distribution of Capital. Determinations may be made to distribute capital from funds given without directions as to principal or income, as well as pursuant to directions expressly permitting use of principal; but the Board of Directors shall inform the trustee, custodian, or agent having custody of the funds of the corporation as far in advance as the Board of Directors deems practicable so as to permit the trustee, custodian, or agent to adjust its investment policies accordingly, and may, upon advice from the trustee, custodian, or agent as to how the desired distribution and any necessary liquidation of investment can be accomplished most economically, adjust its directions for distributions so far as it deems practicable accordingly. (12/23/2019)

Section 4 - Determination of Effective Agencies and Means for Carrying Out the Charitable. The Board of Directors shall gather and analyze facts and conduct such investigation and research as from time to time may be necessary or desirable in order to determine the most effective agencies and means for carrying out the charitable purposes and functions of the corporation, and may direct disbursements for such fact gathering and analysis, investigation, and research from funds given for such purposes or from funds given without designation as to purpose. Disbursements for other proper administrative expenses incurred by the Board of Directors, including salaries for such professional and other assistance as it from time to time deems necessary or desirable, shall be directed to be paid so far as possible, first from any funds designated for such purposes, and any balance out of income of the funds of the corporation or such of its principal as is not specifically restricted against such use. (12/23/2019)

Section 5 - Furtherance of Charitable Purposes. In furtherance of the charitable purposes and functions of the corporation, when needs therefore have been determined and with appropriate provisions to assure use solely for such purposes, the Board of Directors may direct distributions to such persons, organizations, governments, or governmental agencies as in the opinion of the Board of Directors can best carry out such purposes and functions or help create new qualified charitable organizations to carry out such purposes and functions. (12/23/2019)

Section 6 - Distributions from Unrestricted Endowment Funds of the Corporation. Anything in these bylaws to the contrary notwithstanding, the following principles shall govern all distributions from unrestricted endowment funds of the corporation:

(a) Charitable needs for which such distributions may be made shall include the following: (i) improvement of public education at all levels; (ii) human services, including an emphasis on children, families, and the aged; (iii) environmental initiatives; (iv) medical and hospice care; and (v) economic development and revitalization.

Section 7 - Investment of Assets. Independent professional managers shall be selected by the Board of Directors to manage and invest the assets of the corporation in accordance with such investment policies and guidelines as the Board of Directors of the corporation may adopt from

Except in the case of interests in local businesses contributed to the corporation, the assets of the corporation shall not be invested in local businesses, as determined by the Board of Directors of the corporation. (12/23/2019)

(a) Void the contract or transaction in its entirety and recover from such director any damages and expenses suffered or incurred by the corporation as a result of the contract or transaction; or
