Last month, I talked about thinking about ROTARY acrostically - beginning with: Relationships.
To continue, not only are we Relational, we are all each and everyone Opportunity oriented. Rotary certainly is and always should be people (Relational) and place (Opportunity) ... [\[more\]](#)

Our Rotary Foundation

What Is Your Rotary Passion?

By Cheryl Greenway

For Kim Walden, the President of the Thomsville Rotary Club, her passion is Polio Plus. Please join me in welcoming Kim as our newest member of the Arch Klumph society of Our Rotary Foundation. While Kim was attending the President Elect Training Seminar (PETS) earlier this year, she heard about the Bagwell's challenge to match dollar for dollar major gifts to the Polio campaign. She realized that by making a donation of $250,000 to the Foundation Polio program the end result would be a total gift of $1.5 million. Her $250,000 gift being matched by the Bagwells from District 6910 turning the gift into $500,000. The Gates

Rotary and Rotaract Join Forces to Welcome DG Jim

By Haddi Maarouf

In mid-July, the Rotary Club of Atlanta Metro and the Rotaract Club of Atlanta were excited to welcome DG Jim Squire and AG Gillian Leggett to their first joint meeting. The visit entailed ongoing conversations with members from both clubs, getting to know them, their aims and plans to elevate Rotary's mission within the District 6900 and beyond.

Jim and Gillian incorporated their life-experiences as a franchisee option into everything he did. He discussed the importance of attracting new members, but more crucially retaining membership and stressed RI President Mark Daniel Maloney's hopes for connecting with the world for this year. He encouraged and saluted the Rotary Club of Atlanta Metro for being a first of its kind to have dual members from the Rotaract club of Atlanta. [more]
