Global Grants Making a Difference in Health for Kenyan Mothers and Infants

By Wally Horlacher

In 2015, the Rotary Club of Vinings Cumberland embarked upon the latest in a series of Global Grants to improve health conditions for mothers and infants in rural Kenya. The latest is focused on the Elgeyo Marakwet region and seeks to assist 2500 mothers and their children. Efforts were supported by several District 6900 clubs. [\[more\]](#)

Let the Adventures Begin!
By Kathy Broust.

FIRST, HOW DID WE GET HERE?
My journey in becoming a Rotary Global Grant Scholar started many years ago. After graduating West Point in 2013, it was a matter of finding my time until I could take a year to complete a Master's program abroad.

GRSP: An Experience of a Lifetime

By Lynn Clarke

I had never been abroad for a long period of time before. Despite that, I did not hesitate when I, almost a year ago, found out that I had been offered the Georgia ROTC Student Program scholarship. I was not completely sure what I was expecting from my year for away from home. I was certain I was going to miss my family, but I was also sure that this would be a one in a lifetime opportunity for me. I figured that I would experience a new culture and gain memories that would last me a lifetime. But despite getting on a plane with all those hopes and thoughts in my head, I was unprepared for what would really make my year in Georgia amazing. I had not taken into account the people I would meet. [more]

Affirming the Power of Rotary's Reach!

By Mark Barbour

Let's review: The call for all good and VIBRANT Rotarians is the call to be vigorously dedicated to take action to create lasting change - across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves. So, our objective is to be Relational. Opportunistically oriented, and, yes, vibrantly Transformational! Hereby, thereby, and wherever promoting our Relational objective to connect with folks around us intentionally by using animal, articulated, and engaging conversations about who we are and what we are why we are who we are and what we are that we are ensuring that every acquaintance experiences our "Rotary Glow" and gains insight about our ideals of community, regional, national, and global service.
